Study With Grace Chat Bot

What are the countries you are targeting for study abroad (Priority order)

- USA
- Canada
- UK
- Australia
- Europe
- New Zealand
- Ireland
- Dubai

What services do you give for study abroad

- Comprehensive Education Counselling
- Profiling & Career Guidance
- Country, University & Course Selection
- Applications & Admission Process
- Test Preparation
- Interview Preparations
- Scholarship Assistance
- Loan Assistance
- Visa Documentation
- Pre Departure Services
- Accommodation
- Essential Services
- Post Departure Services

What are the minimum costs for going abroad

Country	Cost of Tuition	Cost of Living
USA	18 lakh - 35 Lakh per annum / 18 Lakh - 25 Lakh per	12 Lakh per annum
	annum
UK	14 Lakh - 35 Lakh per annum / 15 Lakh - 22 Lakh	In London - 12006 GBP /
	per annum	Outside London - 9207 GBP
Canada	12 - 25 Lakh per annum / 10-12 lakh pr annum / 14	6 Lakh Per annum
	- 22 Lakh per annum / 10-12 lakh pr annum
Australia	16 Lakh - 22 Lakh per annum / 14 - 22 Lakh per	12 Lakh per annum
	annum
New Zealand	14-18 Lakh per annum / 16 Lakh - 22 Lakh per	6 Lakh Per annum
	annum
Ireland	17 - 22 Lakh per annum / 14-18 Lakh per annum	8 Lakh per annum

Germany	6 to 13 Lakhs / 5 to 8 Lakhs per annum	11208 euros* (10 Lakhs
		INR) - Block Account

Can you help with Visa and other processes

Yes

What are the best countries you suggest

USA/Can/Aus

What documents should I have for Admissions

- Application Form: Completed application, often submitted online.
- Transcripts: Official transcripts from high school or previous educational institutions.
- Letters of Recommendation: Usually 1-3 letters from teachers, employers, or mentors who can speak to your qualifications.
- Personal Statement or Essay: A written statement about your goals, experiences, and reasons for applying.
- Standardized Test Scores: Depending on the program, you may need SAT, ACT, GRE, or other test scores.
- Resume or CV: A summary of your educational background, work experience, and extracurricular activities.
- Proof of English Proficiency: If applicable, scores from tests like TOEFL or IELTS for non-native speakers.
- Portfolio: Required for programs in fields like art, design, or architecture.
- Application Fee: Payment or waiver request, if applicable.
- Identification: A copy of your passport or national ID.

What documents are required for Visa

- Valid Passport: Must be valid for at least six months beyond your planned stay, with blank pages.
- Completed Visa Application Form: Specific to the country you are applying to, often submitted online.
- Acceptance Letter: Proof of admission from a recognized educational institution.
- Proof of Financial Support: Bank statements, scholarship letters, or affidavits demonstrating you can cover tuition and living expenses.
- Photographs: Recent passport-sized photos that meet the country's specifications.
- Travel Itinerary: Details of your planned travel, including flight reservations.
- Academic Records: Transcripts and diplomas from previous education.
- Proof of English Proficiency: If applicable, test scores from exams like TOEFL or IELTS.

- Health Insurance: Documentation showing you have adequate health coverage for your stay, if required.
- Background Checks: Some countries may require a police clearance certificate or a medical examination report.
- Visa Fee Payment: Receipt or proof of payment for the visa application fee.

Which courses do you offer for study abroad

- Language and Culture: Intensive language courses and cultural immersion programs.
- Business and Management: International business, entrepreneurship, marketing, and finance.
- STEM Fields: Courses in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics, often with a focus on research.
- Humanities: History, philosophy, literature, and social sciences.
- Health and Medicine: Public health, nursing, and health sciences.
- Environmental Studies: Sustainability, conservation, and environmental science.
- Art and Design: Fine arts, graphic design, and architecture.
- Education: Teaching methods, special education, and educational policy.
- Hospitality and Tourism: Hotel management, travel management, and tourism studies.
- Internships and Work Experience: Many programs include practical internships related to students' fields of study.

Will you help us with Bank Loans and Interest rates

Yes

Can you help us shortlist universities

Yes

Which country is best for Computer Science

USA

Which Country is best for MBA

USA & UK

Which countries require entrance examinations

- USA
- Canada
- Australia
- Germany

What should be my average grade point to apply for universities

• 2.75-3 on the scale of 4

How can Study with grace be better than other institutes

 At Grace, we're more than just Overseas Education Consultants; we're your Trusted Partners in navigating global education to help you unlock your true potential. We have successfully guided over 6000 students to universities in 12 countries. We understand that every student's journey is unique. That's why our approach is all about personalised guidance for studying abroad, covering everything from financial advice to cultural tips.

Where should I visit for Physical councelling

Pune office

Will you provide online demon session

yes

Can you state the different countries with different specialities of courses

1. United States

- Business: MBA programs, entrepreneurship.
- STEM: Computer science, engineering, and healthcare.
- Arts: Film, music, and fine arts.

2. United Kingdom

- Humanities: History, literature, and philosophy.
- Social Sciences: International relations and sociology.
- Fashion: Fashion design and marketing.

3. Germany

- Engineering: Mechanical, automotive, and electrical engineering.
- Renewable Energy: Sustainable engineering and environmental studies.
- Computer Science: Information technology and software engineering.

4. Canada

- Natural Resources: Environmental science and forestry.
- Healthcare: Nursing and public health.
- Business: International business and management.

5. Australia

- Marine Biology: Coastal and marine studies.
- Education: Early childhood and special education.
- Hospitality: Hotel management and tourism studies.

6. France

- Culinary Arts: Cooking and pastry arts.
- Fashion Design: Haute couture and fashion marketing.
- Art and Design: Fine arts and graphic design.

7. Italy

- Art History: Renaissance art and museum studies.
- Architecture: Urban planning and design.
- Culinary Studies: Italian cuisine and gastronomy.

8. Japan

- Technology: Robotics and Al.
- Cultural Studies: Japanese language and culture.
- Animation and Game Design: Media arts and animation.

9. Netherlands

- Design: Industrial design and architecture.
- Social Sciences: International development and human rights.
- Sustainability: Environmental science and sustainable development.

10. Sweden

- Innovation and Technology: IT and engineering.
- Sustainability: Environmental studies and sustainable business.
- Social Welfare: Social work and public policy.

How can I get LORs

- Academic Professors: Choose instructors who know your work and can speak to your abilities and character.
- Employers or Supervisors: If you've worked, a supervisor can provide insight into your professional skills.
- Mentors or Advisors: Individuals who have guided you academically or professionally.

Will you help me connect with different people in the

Yes

Will you help me settle down and find a temporary job

Yes

What other benefits will I get from study with Grace

• Entire Service Assistance

Do you provide GRE/IELTS/TOFEL/SAT classes

yes

Do you provide Coaching

Yes

Where should I do my coaching from

Grace International

What if my Entrance exams score is less than necessary

• We can assist students for conditional admission. Also can help students to get the required score.

Which countries give the most Work Visa

USA & Australia

Do I need to learn any particular language to study in a particular country

IELTS

Which courses will you recommend for higher job prospects

• STEM Courses

What if my Visa gets rejected should I apply for more countries

• Our visa success ratio is 100%

What is the average cost of Visa

• 30,000 to 1,00,000

Will you prepare me for Visa Interview

Yes

Country Specific questions:

USA:

Can I have a job while studying in the USA?

 Yes, if you're on an F-1 visa, you can work on campus for up to 20 hours a week during school and full-time during breaks. Working off-campus usually requires special permission.

Do US universities give scholarships to students from other countries?

 Yes, many universities in the USA provide scholarships based on your achievements, needs, or special skills. There are also scholarships from other groups you can apply for.

How does the credit system work at US universities?

• In the USA., universities use a credit system. Each class gives you several credits, and you must earn a set amount to graduate.

What's the OPT program about?

 The Optional Practical Training (OPT) program lets students on F-1 visas work in their study area in the USA for up to a year after finishing their degree or three years in STEM fields.

Can I stay in the USA after finishing my studies?

 Your ability to stay depends on your visa and job options. You can work for a while under OPT, and some may get a work visa like the H-1B.

Where can students live in the USA?

 You can live on-campus in dorms or sororities, which you need to apply for early, or off-campus, where the university can suggest options.

What health and support services are there for students from abroad?

• Most US universities offer health insurance for international students. Support teams can help you choose. When you arrive, sign up with a local doctor.

How long do USA degrees take?

• Undergraduate degrees usually take four years, master's degrees 1-2 years, and Ph.D. programs can take 4-6 years.

What's the difference between colleges and universities in the USA?

 Colleges are smaller and offer undergraduate degrees. Universities offer both undergraduate and graduate degrees and have more programs.

Is there an age requirement for US universities?

You should have finished high school and be at least 17 to start university.

When should I start applying to universities?

 You should start applying 10-12 months before your course starts, usually in September or January.

How and where do I apply for scholarships?

You can find scholarships on university websites or the official UK government site.
 You can apply directly on these websites or get help from a counsellor.

How long does the application process take?

• If your documents are ready and correctly scanned, it takes about 24-48 hours to process your application.

When will universities decide on my application?

• It typically takes 15-45 days to hear back from universities on a decision on your application. For top universities, it may take longer.

What documents do I need to apply?

You will need:

- Passport copy
- Statement of Purpose (SOP)
- CV/Resume
- Letter of Recommendation (LOR)
- Academic Transcripts and Certificates (from 10th standard onwards)
- English language proficiency score (IELTS/PTE/TOEFL)
- Work Experience Letters, if you have any
- Profile-building documentation includes internship certificates, short courses, NGO experience, etc.

Can I work and study at the same time?

Yes, you can work and study at the same time. Students are allowed to work for 20 hours per week during term time and 40 hours per week during semester breaks. It's a good way to gain work experience and manage your expenses. Make sure to check the specific work guidelines for your visa and university.

Can I study in the UK after taking a break from my studies?

 Most UK universities welcome students who've taken a two-year break. Some even consider those with up to a three-year gap for undergraduate programs.

Is there an age limit for studying in the UK?

 Young students aged 16 or 17 need their parents' written permission to live and travel by themselves in the UK. Our counsellors can guide you through the visa application process, including this requirement.

Do I need health insurance to study in the UK?

Yes, you do. As part of the visa application, you need to pay an IHS (Immigration Health Surcharge) to access all the services the NHS (National Health Service) offers.

How long will it take to get my UK student visa?

 Getting your student visa can take about 30-45 days from when you're admitted to when you receive your visa, with the application process taking around 15 working days.

Australia:

How long does getting an Australian student visa take?

The Australian High Commission usually takes 2 to 6 weeks to process a student visa.
 To be safe, apply for your visa 2 months before your course starts.

What are some popular courses in Australia?

 Students in Australia enjoy a variety of courses, such as Agriculture, Business, Law, Education, Engineering, Environmental Science, Health Sciences, Hospitality, Tourism, and many more.

When do universities in Australia start their classes?

 The main intakes are in February and July, while a few universities offer a November intake as well.

How early should I start my university application?

• It's best to start your application 7 to 8 months before your intended intake since universities take about 4 to 6 weeks to process applications.

Can I take a gap year before I start studying in Australia?

 Yes, taking a gap year is fine, but it's advisable to use this time wisely. Also, check with your potential universities about their policy on gap years.

What is CRICOS?

CRICOS, or The Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas
 Students, is an official list of all the programs available in Australia for international students on student visas. Each program is given a unique CRICOS code. This system ensures that international students receive a high-quality education.

How long can I stay in Australia after I graduate?

Your ability to stay depends on your qualifications. You will be eligible to apply for a Post-Study Visa for 3 to 5 years, depending on your course and region. For the best advice, consider speaking with us or getting professional immigration advice since several visa options could apply.

What kind of work opportunities can I explore while studying?

 International students are allowed to work up to 20 hours per week during the school term and full-time during semester breaks. Jobs are available in retail, hospitality, and other sectors. The wage rates for casual work are the highest in Australia compared to other countries like the UK, US, etc.

Are scholarships available for international students in Australia?

 Yes, many Australian universities offer scholarships that cover 10% to 30% of international students' tuition fees based on merit. In addition to university scholarships, there are external ones like the Australia Awards and IPRS.

Is health insurance required for students in Australia?

Yes, international students must purchase Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC), which covers healthcare expenses during the stay, before arriving in Australia.

Canada

What are Canada's top cities for students?

 Montreal, Vancouver, Toronto, Ottawa, and Quebec City rank as some of Canada's best cities for international students.

Can students work while they're studying in Canada?

 Yes, Indian students can work up to 20 hours per week during the school term and full-time during holidays. After completing your studies, depending on the length of your program, you might get an extension to work for up to three years.

What do students under 18 need to study in Canada?

• If you're under 18, you'll need to include a custodian letter with your visa application documents.

Does Canada offer scholarships to international students?

 There are many scholarships available for international students from various sectors, including private, government, and academic institutions.

How many academic intakes are there in Canada?

 Canadian universities have three intakes: Fall in September, Winter in January, and Summer in May.

What are some popular programs in Canada for undergraduates?

Popular undergraduate courses in Canada include Information Technology,
 Engineering, Hospitality Management, Medicine and Health Care, Business Development, Media and Journalism, Psychology, and Actuarial Science.

Can I apply for Permanent Residency (PR) while studying in Canada?

 Yes, international students can apply for PR in Canada during their study period or after finishing their studies, provided they meet the criteria of the Canadian immigration program they are applying to.

Is health insurance required for students in Canada?

 All international students planning to study in Canada must have health insurance coverage. Some Canadian provinces offer health insurance to international students under provincial plans.

What's the acceptable study gap for students in Canada?

 The acceptable study gap varies by the level of education; for undergraduate programs, a two-year gap is accepted, while for postgraduate programs, up to a fiveyear gap is acceptable.

What accommodation options are available for students in Canada?

Indian students can choose between on-campus housing or off-campus accommodations like dormitories, townhouses, or rented spaces in shared apartments. While on-campus living is affordable, it requires a separate, early application. If you prefer living off-campus or alone, rental costs will vary by city. Our counsellors can help you find suitable accommodation.

Ireland:

What are my options for studying in Ireland?

In Ireland, you can study at technology institutes, universities, or private colleges, offering many different courses. Each institute has its own set of entry requirements and admission process.

How can Indian students afford their studies in Ireland?

Studying abroad, like in Ireland, can cost more than in India. But the benefits, like top-quality education and global exposure, are worth it. You can look at bank loans, personal savings, scholarships, and more to help pay for it. Also, the cost of education in Ireland is more reasonable compared to other countries like the US, UK & Australia.

Do I need health insurance to study in Ireland?

Yes, international students must have private health insurance in Ireland. This is needed for any medical services outside the university campus and must be shown when applying for your student visa and registering with immigration.

Can I apply for permanent residency (PR) after my studies in Ireland?

 Yes, you can apply for PR after living in Ireland for 5 years. But if you're there as a student, your studies and work experience also play a big role in your PR application.
 If you are working in Ireland on a critical skill employment permit or tech permit, you can apply for PR in 2 years.

Is it possible to study in Ireland if I have academic backlogs?

 Yes, Irish institutions often accept students with up to four to five backlogs. Some might only accept up to two to three backlogs.

How many courses can I apply for in Ireland?

 You can apply for up to ten courses at Irish universities. You have the flexibility to change which courses you're interested in throughout the application process, but the limit is ten.

What are my housing options as a student in Ireland?

 You'll find several choices like university halls, shared flats, or homestay with a local family, offering you a home-like environment.

Which courses in Ireland are good for future careers?

Popular fields in Ireland include Business Analytics, Finance, Data Science,
 Pharmaceutical Sciences, and Construction, which are known for boosting career prospects.

What are the best cities in Ireland for students?

• Students love cities like Dublin, Cork, Galway, Maynooth, and Limerick for their vibrant student life and educational opportunities.

Where can I live as a student in Ireland?

 You can choose from dorms, shared apartments, or living with a host family, depending on what suits you best.

Can I work and study in Dubai?

 International students are allowed to work part-time in Dubai with a work permit from the UAE's Labour Department.

How is college life in Dubai?

College life in Dubai is lively and full of opportunities to meet students from all over the world. The city is safe, up-to-date, and has many excellent spots to explore.
You'll find good deals for students on food and fun activities. Plus, you can get internships to gain real work experience and even start your career in Dubai with special job programs for graduates.

How many hours can a student work in Dubai?

 Students can work up to 15 hours per week during the semester or 60 hours a month. During academic breaks, this can increase to 40 hours per week.

Do I need a visa to study in Dubai?

• Yes, international students need a visa to study in Dubai.

Is Dubai expensive for students?

 Dubai is known for its higher living costs, but scholarships, fellowships, and part-time work opportunities can help manage expenses.

How do I get a scholarship in Dubai?

 Check university websites for scholarship details, including criteria and application processes. Apply for scholarships when you apply for admission to not miss any opportunities.

How long can I stay in Dubai after graduation?

• You can stay 30 days after graduation or until your student visa is cancelled. You can switch to a work visa if you find a full-time job.

Which courses are in demand in Dubai?

 Popular courses include travel and tourism, engineering and technology, business and management, and computer science. Connect with us today and we'll help you find a course that aligns with your ambitions.

When do admissions start?

Admissions usually open twice a year, in September and January. Registration begins 4-6 months in advance and stays open until term starts.

Is Dubai safe for students?

 Dubai is very safe for students. It offers a modern, multicultural environment with world-class educational opportunities and a high quality of life.

New Zealand

Why is New Zealand a good choice for Indian students to study?

 New Zealand offers affordable education options and is known for its safe and peaceful environment, making it an attractive place for students.

Can I enrol in more than one course in New Zealand?

 Yes, with the pathway student visa, you can join up to three consecutive courses over five years at accredited schools.

What are my accommodation options in New Zealand?

You can choose from living in a student hall, sharing an apartment, or staying with a host family where you'll be well looked after.

Am I allowed to work while I study in New Zealand?

 Yes, students can work up to 20 hours a week during school terms and full-time during holidays. PhD students can work full-time all year round.

Will I be able to find a job in New Zealand after my studies?

A degree from New Zealand equips you with valuable skills, enhancing your chances of landing a great job after graduation. Depending on your level of studies, you are also eligible for a post-study work permit of up to 3 years.

When are the main intake periods for New Zealand universities?

 New Zealand universities have intakes in February and July. Start your applications in August for the February intake to allow six weeks for processing.

Do students under 18 need a local guardian in New Zealand?

 Depending on your college's requirements, you might need to provide details of a local guardian for your stay.

How is the Permanent Resident visa determined in New Zealand?

The Permanent Resident visa in New Zealand operates on a points system, allowing work experience gained while studying in the country to contribute valuable points towards residency. Obtaining PR in New Zealand is relatively easy compared to other countries.

What are the top fields of study for a promising future in New Zealand?

Fields like Medicine, Renewable Energy, IT, International Law, Marketing, and Data
 Science are highly recommended for students.

Is health insurance a must for students in New Zealand?

 Yes, all international students need to have health insurance during their stay in New Zealand.

Can I work while I'm studying in Germany?

Yes, you can work up to 20 hours a week while studying in Germany.

Is part-time work allowed to help pay for my studies?

Absolutely. International students in Germany can work part-time. Specifically, if you're from outside the EU, you can work 120 full days or 240 half days per year. Just remember, you can't freelance or run your own business while on this permit.

What are my job prospects after I finish my studies in Germany?

Germany offers numerous job opportunities across various fields. The key is to prepare and align your skills with what employers are looking for. Engage with seniors, participate in job fairs, and utilise your study time to gain the right competencies.

What scholarships are available for students from my country?

 The DAAD Scholarship Database is a great place to start looking for scholarships. It lists scholarships available for various countries, along with application requirements.

Can I enrol in programmes taught in English in Germany?

 Yes, Germany offers a wide range of English-taught courses, especially at the master's level. Check the DAAD database for International Programmes. However, picking up some German will enhance your experience and social connections.

Do I need health insurance to study in Germany?

Yes, health insurance is mandatory for studying in Germany. International students can opt for public health insurance if they're under 30 and enrolled in degree programmes. You'll also need proof of health insurance for your visa application, which may initially be private travel health insurance until you're enrolled and can switch to public health insurance.

How can I get around Germany without a car?

Germany's public transport system is extensive and efficient, including subways (U-Bahn), commuter rails (S-Bahn), trams, and buses, making it easy to navigate the country.

What is 'Studienkolleg'?

 Studienkolleg is a preparatory course lasting one year, designed for international students whose secondary school diplomas don't directly qualify them for university admission in Germany.

Which cities in Germany are the most affordable and the most expensive to live in?

• Bielefeld, Magdeburg, Leipzig, Erfurt, and Halle are affordable cities, while Munich and Frankfurt are among the more expensive places to live in Germany.

What other costs should I consider while studying in Germany?

•	Consider budgeting for rent, public transport, meals, textbooks, field trips, and healthcare, among other living expenses.